1. Col. Bicknell discussed a memorandum from the J.T.S. revising the priority list and instructed the Secretary to prepare a memorandum to be distributed to the contributors giving them the new order of priorities.
2. Col. Bicknell also pointed out that certain areas were contained in the last bibliography furnished to the J.T.S., and it was decided not to revise the bibliography at this time but, if necessary, prepare an errata sheet.
3. The method of procedure in procuring additional personnel was discussed, and provision was made for dispatching to each of the four agencies concerned the material which the J.I.S.P.B. had prepared, together with a memorandum from the Secretary of the J.T.S. recommending approval of our request.
4. At this point, Dr. Meigs, Lt. Quam, Lt. Pratt, and Major Douglas entered the meeting, and a general, round table discussion was held, relative to editorial policy, etc.
5. Lt. Quam suggested that J.I.S.P.B. request that J.T.S. endeavor to have Army Map Service authorized as a contributor to JANIS and also be responsible for the preparation for a map critique for J.I.S.P.B. The matter was discussed at length and Col. Bicknell suggested that it would be better to take the matter up personally with Col. Loper before requesting J.T.S. to take any action.
6. Col. Bicknell again explained that the priority list had been revised and that we must exert every effort to meet the deadlines as indicated.

Meeting adjourned.

GEORGE H. KOUNTZ,
Lt. Col., G.I.S.C.,
Secretary.
